

Well, I said that only the FIRST solution gets the money.

You are too late: W. Bednorz and R. Latala solved the problem at the end of 2012, just in time so that it can be included in my forthcoming book "Upper and lower bounds..."

Their proof is simply stunningly beautiful.

After the prize has been duly paid, a receipt will be posted here.