

The first Wansoo and Michel Talagrand prize in mathematics will be awarded in 2032, or the year after my death if it comes earlier. The amount will be very significant, much larger than the prizes I have previously offered from my own bank account.